Ferrie managed to arrange the theft of what one witness who for the moment must remain anonymous describes as "a rather substantial" quantity of assorted arms ~~in an operation separate from the heist at Houma which we go into elsewhere.~~ These were doled out to representatives of the exile groups ~~from Miami,~~ who carted them back to Miami. These were weapons, not just explosives, ~~such as were obtained from the burglarized well-service company,~~ including such exclusively military items as grenades, They can originate from only military sources.)

The correction in line 18 is the substitution for the number 15,000 of "25,000 interviews totalling a5,400 pages in 2,300"
